Product description

Complement factor B is a component of the alternative pathway of complement activation. Factor B circulates in the blood as a single chain polypeptide. Upon activation of the alternative pathway, it is cleaved by complement factor D yielding the noncatalytic chain Ba and the catalytic subunit Bb. The active subunit Bb is a serine protease which associates with C3b to form the alternative pathway C3 convertase. Bb is involved in the proliferation of preactivated B lymphocytes, while Ba inhibits their proliferation.

The cDNA coding for Factor B was cloned and expressed in HEK293EBNA1 cells that are deficient in an enzyme that is involved in N-linked glycosylation of glycoproteins. As a result, recombinant factor B produced from this cell line contains N-linked glycans of the short and simple man₅-GlcNAc₂ type. Therefore, this factor B is extremely suitable for protein crystallization experiments. Factor B is purified to homogeneity, see figure 1. It contains an N-terminal hexahistidine tag. Each vial contains 400 µg factor B at a concentration of 16 mg/ml.

Storage and stability

Factor B should be stored at - 80 °C (stable for at least 1 year). The buffer contains 25 mM Tris 150 mM NaCl pH 7.5 without preservative. After thawing it should be stored in appropriate small aliquots at - 20 °C or - 80 °C (stable for at least 2 months).
